EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 16.

EASTERN STATES

New York News

NEW YORK, March 15—The Directors of the Erie Railroad state the earnings of the Company from November 1871, to date to be $21 000 000 against $[illegible] 000 000 for the previous year

Jay Gould's resignation is accepted

The Judiciary Committee continued the investigation this evening into the charges against Judge Barnard. Among the witnesses was Jay Gould who testified that the accusations of corruption on Barnard in the Erie suits are unfounded Gould stated that he paid Samuel J Tilden $10 000 retaining fee on behalf of the Erie Railroad From that day he never saw Tilden until he appeared as counsel for plaintiff in a suit against the company

NEW YORK, March 16—There is much disappointment among merchants at the failure of Collector Arthur, of the Custom House, to inaugurate the needed reform in the general order business The World says Leet and Stocking sent a letter around to several steamship companies addressed to the Collector, recommending the firm and their warehouses Canvassers for Leet and Stocking in this business as an inducement to get signatures stated that the Collector would consider it a favor to have the letter signed and that the signers would lose nothing thereby

The police yesterday arrested Dr Charles Manches and Rice & Co and others, for dealing in immoral articles

One of the charges presented against Judge Barnard recites the appointment of Receivers in the year 1867 The defence is that this charge should not be entertained, as the time goes back to his former term of office This point is very important and will be hereafter decided

Jay Gould, in his testimony last evening said that in 1869 he saw President Grant and Judge Barnard at the Play of Twelve Temptations and had seen the President in the box with Fisk

The different bankers in this city have been requested to furnish any accounts had with Cordoza and Barnard

During the performance of a play for the benefit of the Woman's Home, at Newark last night in which a large number of little boys and girls participated two of the girls' dresses caught fire from the stage lights There was a scene of the wildest excitement for a short time The fire was put out and but one was seriously burned

About 60 000 men will join in the procession on St Patrick's Day and fifty bands of music The military will number 6,000

From testimony taken by the Senate Committee in the case of Senator James Wood, Tweed said Wood was elected in 1870 in opposition to the Erie candidates, notwithstanding Gould came to Wood and loaned him $10 000 Tweed lent him $15,000, whereupon Wood voted according to the wishes of Tweed

A Washington special to the Tribune says the fact is announced from a source which cannot be questioned that Charles Sumner has consented to attend the Cincinnati Convention and preside over its deliberations He was approached on the subject some time ago but has only now consented to take an active part in the Convention

Miscellaneous Eastern Dispatches

ALBANY March 15—The Charlestown (West Virginia) Courier publishes an article written by Mr Walker State Printer concerning frauds alleged to have been perpetrated by his predecessor, now one of the proprietors of the Wheeling Intelligencer It is charged that during two years the Public Printer drew from the Treasury over $15 000 upon illegal and fraudulent vouchers he also received a large profit on paper, which the law requires to be furnished at cost The recent flurry about the accounts of the present printer seems to have been gotten up for the purpose of screening the former one

CHICAGO, March 16—The Republican State Central Committee met here yesterday, and decided to call a State Convention on May 22d

At Lawrence, Kansas, yesterday Mrs Anna C Ruth, who has been in jail several months on a charge of complicity in the murder of her husband, J M Ruth by Dr Middleton now under sentence of death was brought before Judge Bassett on a writ of habeas corpus The Prosecuting Attorney announced that since the decision of the Supreme Court against the admissibility of Ruth's letter written on the evening of his death as evidence—and under the present development of facts it is impossible—he did not desire to retain her in custody any longer She was therefore discharged

Senator Tipton of Nebraska arrived here last evening to consult with the leaders of the Liberal movement in regard to the May Convention In an interview with a reporter he named Garfield of Ohio and Dawes of Massachusetts, leading Republican members of the House, who were known to be in sympathy with the anti Grant movement in the Republican party He says Trumbull is his first choice for the Presidency but that the Convention will probably decide on Davis

BOSTON, March 15—Harvard school house at Charlestown was burned this afternoon Loss $40 000 At the time the building took fire there were 420 children in it but by the presence of mind of the teachers all escaped. Some were considerably injured, but none severely

PHILADELPHIA March 15—A portion of the Japanese Embassy arrived here this afternoon

WASHINGTON CITY

National Affairs

WASHINGTON March 16—A number of officers who were dismissed during the war without trial have applied to the Secretary of the Navy to be reinstated under the provisions of the Act of March 3 1865 In case such officers succeed in being reinstated under such law, they will be entitled to back pay for the whole time during which they were suspended

Rear Admiral Rogers Taylor has received preparatory orders to take command of the North Atlantic fleet

The Cabinet was in session to day for about two hours business of more than ordinary importance being before it

The Senate Arms Committee concluded the examination of Colonel Crispin and adjourned till Monday when [illegible] will be examined

General Dyer Chief of Ordnance United States Army is lying dangerously ill of Bright's disease of the kidneys

In the House the St Croix Railroad bill was discussed until [illegible] P M when voting commenced on the bill and amendments The first vote taken was on the motion of Eldridge of the Committee on Amendments, on the amendment reported by the committee forbidding the [illegible] of that Act granting any lands other than lands which might have [illegible] by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company also [illegible] granting any coal lands The motion was agreed to by [illegible] to 63 Killinger's amendment requiring the rails used on the road to be of American manufacture was rejected ayes [illegible] noes [illegible] The next vote on the substitute offered by Holman declaring all lands forfeited granted by Congress in 1856 and 1864 for construction of the St Croix and Lake Superior Railroad [illegible] grants have expired by limitation and shall [illegible] be subject to homestead entry and to [illegible] under the Homestead Act of May 20 1862 and that no part of such lands shall be selected or inure to the benefit of any railroad company under any assured grant from the United States and no land embraced in the grant to the St Croix Railroad Company shall in any case revert to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company and repealing all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with this provision Adopted ayes [illegible] nays 65

The Investigation Committee to day examined Special Treasury Agent B[illegible] He testified at length in regard to working of the system when charges were made against merchants of defrauding the Revenue Department There had been fifteen cases of seizure of books and papers since he had been in office but could not recollect the names or cases of parties He never compromised cases had no power to do so The entire expense of fifty three special agents for one year including a Supervising Agent at Washington, were $150 000—[illegible]0 000 of which were expended in traveling and contingent expenses During that period over one million dollars had been paid into the Treasury and suits involving double that sum are pending.

WEST INDIES.

Another Submarine Cable to be Laid.

HAVANA March 1[illegible]—A telegraph cable between Cuba and Mexico will probably be laid in April

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

London Dispatches

LONDON March 1[illegible]—Earl Granville announced in the House of Lords to night that he had received official notice from the French Cabinet of the abrogation of the Commercial Treaty

The Fenians are making preparations for a grand demonstration [illegible] about Ireland in favor of general amnesty on St Patrick's Day

In the House of Commons to night Disraeli alluded to the public anxiety in regard to the American reply to Lord Granville's note and asked the Government if it could be laid before the House Gladstone replied that a Cabinet meeting would be held to morrow, at which the answer of Secretary Fish would be considered After that he would report on the subject; it was impossible to do so now

Horsman gave notice that in case of further negotiations with the Government of the United States he should ask Her Majesty's Government that nothing be accepted as final until sanctioned by Parliament

CALIFONIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO March 1[illegible]—To arrive overland this evening Mr Morse of Walla Walla

The steamer Henry Chauncy sailed from New York for Panama to day with passengers and 1 39[illegible] tons of freight

By order of the Board of Inspectors of Hulls Boilers at Washington Messrs Bemis and Waterman, Inspectors to day made a public test of Downer's mineral sperm oil which is made from the residuum of parafine The test is decided to be a perfect success The oil burns freely in peculiarly constructed lamps but when poured upon an open fire will put it out and all attempts to ignite it in an open vessel entirely failed

There were 42 deaths in the city this week

After the adjournment of the Board to-day there was little done in stocks on the street—holders firm and buyers more numerous than sales There were 22 690 shares of stock sold in the single session of the Board to-day

The case of Dr Behrens, accused of producing the death of Pauline Lindenberger through malpractice, has been on examination in the Police Court

Platt's Hall is packed to the utmost capacity. Caleb T Fay presented resolutions protesting against the cession of Goat Island to the Pacific railroad, which were received with great applause and adopted unanimously The meeting is composed of all classes of citizens, and is unanimous in sentiment

Dr Behrens is held to answer in the sum of $10,000

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

PETALUMA, March 16—Henry T Jones, the pioneer merchant of Novato, Marin county, was found dead this morning in a water trough by the roadside, with the head and body bruised. He is supposed to have been murdered There is much excitement in regard to the matter The manner of his death is enveloped in complete mystery

Speculations on the Coming Vice President

The Chicago Tribune of March 8th has this dispatch from Washington

For some time it has been a matter of curious inquiry here as to who is the Administration candidate for the Vice Presidency It has been believed that General Grant had no avowed preference and that this portion of the ticket was to be left open to aspirants Within the past few days there have been expressions from certain quarters which would seem to indicate that the Administration desired a change in this direction, and Delegate Chaffee, of Colorado who was interrogated by his constituents by letter as to the instructions to be given to the delegates sent to the Philadelphia Convention made such enquiries as he deemed sufficient and then responded that the support of Colfax was not an Administration test, and, further, intimated that Wilson of Iowa or Wilson of Massachusetts would be just as acceptable to the President but there is reason to believe that Wilson of Iowa would prove the most acceptable of these two

In discussing this question the Administration organ here this morning, uses the following language "While other gentlemen who for lesser services have been perhaps more honored and applauded are now endeavoring to destroy the party organization and hand it over to the enemy it has so often fought and conquered, the two Wilsons are working might and main to add to the long list of its triumphs and successes Wilson of Iowa has spoken brave words in favor of the administration and re nomination of President Grant which are all the stronger for him inasmuch as it has been attempted to array him in the line of opposition Both these gentlemen have been mentioned as candidates for the Vice Presidency, In either of them Colfax would have an able and worthy successor

An Immense Fraud

A communication to the Mountaineer contains the following suggestions relating to one of the most fraudulent schemes that ever was known in Oregon

It is well known that the Dalles Military Road Company at little expense became the owners of an immense tract of land running through the center of Wasco county This was obtained through a singularly worded Bill passed by the Legislature of 1868 By that Bill this company were to construct a road, etc and the said road was to remain a public highway for the use of the government of the United States free from tolls or other charges upon the transportation of any property, troops or mails of the United States

Has this company for a long time done anything to keep said road in repair?

Does it propose now to let the road take care of itself—since the company has obtained all their lands under said Bill by the accepting of the road by the Governor?

Does it propose to render no facilities for the public to use the road—to build no bridge at the Deschutes river [illegible] breaches by flood and storm—[illegible] no repairs

Does it propose to let the John Day river prove a serious barrier to travel and let private persons assume to build its bridges and charge tolls or do as they please about crossing travellers?

In a word must the United States Mail pay from four to ten dollars every time it crosses John Day river as toll? More anon

The Cincinnati Gazette remarking upon the unanimity and enthusiasm with which the Indiana Republican Convention declared for Grant's renomination pertinently says

The war that has been made upon Grant because it is a personal war and in a great degree unjust has strengthened him in Indiana as it has generally among the people It is the right of every citizen to express his views with reference to the Presidency and to declare in a fair way his choice for that high office but the leaders of the anti Grant movement have overshot the mark vastly and in abusing and seemingly persecuting him have intensified the support of his friends and caused a general reaction in his favor

A Pretty Scandal all the Way from Paris

NEW YORK, March 16—American circles in Paris are excited by the following scandal A well known citizen of New York, famous for the fortune he made by the sale of patent medicines was in Paris He is addicted to gambling He returned to his room in Paris one morning about 2 o'clock His wife was not in their lodging room but he knew where she was to be found So he went to the house of Mrs B. and found that lady, his wife and two men playing cards The New Yorker flew into a towering rage and upbraided his wife Next morning the wife obtained a certificate of two or three French physicians, who had never seen her husband vouching that he was insane and should be placed in the insane asylum Armed with this she went to Mr Washburne and through his intervention made the police arrest the husband and lodge him in the mad house Meanwhile Mr Washburne grew uneasy at the thought of the responsibility he had assumed, and next day sent an American doctor to see him The doctor discovered that he was sane and he was liberated.

A Horrible Recital.

NEW YORK, March 16—A terrible scene has taken place at a monastery in Palermo A young nun had been attached to her father confessor Thither she was secretly conveyed and gave birth to a child. The child was disposed of and the mother cruelly treated Several monks determined on destroying her during the temporary absence of her paramour They put a cord round her neck and dragged her along the floor till she was strangled. Her screams attracted the attention of some Greek sailors, who effected an entrance into the monastery, when three of the holy fathers paid the penalty of their crime One received a death wound by a sword another was shot through the lungs, and a third received several wounds in the head from which he has since died.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO March 1[illegible]—The bark [illegible] from Coos Bay, is at anchor six miles off the harbor with flag set at half mast as a signal of distress. It is supposed she has met with some disaster A tug is going to her assistance this evening

Officers Riley and Spiller were riding in the Lone Mountain cars when they recognized among the passengers, disguised as a high toned gentleman, the notorious Tim Lynch whose last exploit was getting sent from the county jail where he was awaiting trial for shooting a man in a row over a game of cards, to the county hospital, then scaling the walls and escaping in the day time with nothing on but a shirt He is in his old quarters again When in San Quentin, some years since for inducing a young girl to rob her mother of all her earnings and run away with him ate fifteen pounds of bar soap and was pardoned out on a physician's certificate that he was dying of dropsy He will probably be "out of soap" for a long time

At a mass meeting held last evening to oppose the cession of Goat Island to the Pacific railroad resolutions were adopted denouncing the scheme in unmeasured terms. Hon. A B. Forbes, Hon J C Hastings, J. T Lewis, J C [illegible], and F B Perrin, were appointed a committee to attend upon the State Legislature and represent the wishes of the people in opposition to the proposed grant The President of the meeting, James Otis, was added to the committee. Another resolution was offered, providing that Hon Caleb T Fay and Gen B F A[illegible] should be appointed and requested to go to Washington for the present to urge the will of the people as expressed by the resolutions adopted and to act there in conjunction with Prof. Davidson This was also adopted by unanimous vote. The President then offered the following, which had been prepared by a gentleman in the hall

Resolved, That if the Senate should pass the bill for the cession of any portion of Goat Island to the Railroad Company, we earnestly request the President to veto it This was received and adopted with cheers

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SAN DIEGO, March 17—Advices from Lower California say that Lorento Amador has been invested by the Government of Mexico with the full powers of civil Judge, and is now en route for San Rafael On his arrival there he will require Governor Roja to repair to Lopery and there give an account of his administration

Two men arrived on the last steamer from San Francisco, en route to Arizona with peddlers' goods. The morning after their arrival one of them started for the old town, and has not since been heard from His partner thinks he has met with foul play.

THE CONTRAST—How great was the leniency and forbearance of the North in the civil war, and how moderate in its victory, the rebellious South perhaps can only [illegible] as history forces the knowledge on it. It has paid not one cent in the way of [illegible] damages Let it consider the [illegible] of France, which now is busy [illegible] for the speedy payment of the German indemnity One of [illegible] is to raise a loan of £120,000,000 at three per cent, with "drawings" so heavy as to constitute lottery prizes Thus, it is considered, would be taken up at once, but we are not told how the [illegible] is to be paid into the Treasury. It is nearly £20 per house, to be subscribed in cash M Laurier's scheme is much better. It is to purchase the railways, the revenue of which belongs to government, for their value in rent, and then pay off the German [illegible] in railway bonds, or money raised on the railway security. Suppose for one moment that the rebellious States were charged with the payment of the whole war debt. Every [illegible] cratic paper would whine and howl at the very idea, and declare it monstrous, oppressive, and unjust. Yet this is just what civilized Germany—the first power in Europe—has exacted of France.

Victoria Woodhull, who has really become as preposterous and as intolerable a bore as George Francis Train or the Count [illegible] signifies her purpose of sending out five hundred female orators to make shrill and incoherent speeches the coming Presidential campaign

The New York Herald says The case in a nutshell was stated the other day by Mr. Nye, of Nevada, in the Senate in these words "Fa[illegible] everybody thought General Grant a [illegible] good man, but that was before he had r[illegible] anybody's relations from office."

Mrs Partington was induced to go to a circus the other evening She never [illegible] to set foot in one again The [illegible] some of the performers threw themselves into quite upset her.

MONDAY MORNING MARCH 18 1872

Correcting Dispatches

We are moved with compassion to find that the Herald has a new grievance It irks that paper exceedingly to find that we printed a dispatch relative to the result of the New Hampshire election in an intelligible form Here is the way the Herald gave it

PORTSMOUTH March 14 —The Chronicle has returns from all but eight towns which last year gave Straw less than 3 000 votes Straw has 38 563 Weston and scattering 38 338 Straw s majority, 1 230 which will probably be increased The Senate stands 58 Republicans to 4 Democrats The list of Representatives is incomplete, but so far as heard from the Republicans have 209, Democrats, 135 Temperance 1 Labor Reform, 4 The full list will probably give the Republicans about 50 majority

The errors in the above are gross and palpable An editor who cannot perceive them wants intelligence, and an editor who perceiving them does not make proper corrections, fails to give his readers a newspaper Certain towns are spoken of which last year gave Straw 8,000 votes Straw was not a candidate last year and every editor ought to know it The dispatch as printed in the Herald says that the Senate stands 58 Republicans to 4 Democrats This is absurd The Senate of New Hampshire consists of but twelve members Obviously, therefore, the dispatch should read ' 8 Republicans to 4 Democrats This is the way we printed it The dispatch as given in the Herald stated that returns from all but eight towns gave Straw 38,568 Weston and scattering, 38,338 , Straw s majority, 1 230 Here is absurdity again The Herald adds a note that Straw's majority ' evidently should read 230. ' Evidently it should not The vote for "Weston and scattering should read 37,338, as we gave it This is necessary to make it accord with previous dispatches It is also necessary to make it accord with known facts in relation to the aggregate voting population of New Hampshire The dispatch, as the Herald prints it, would make the aggregate vote of the State much too large.

That paper is horrified at the emendations we made to render the dispatch intelligible. We now engage to prove these emendations correct when the mails arrive. We have done this before , understand us, we shall in this case do it again For our neighbor s snivelling assertion that it is "inconsistent with honesty " to correct errors which have crept into dispatches during their transmission, we dismiss it with contempt If he is content to print without correction a dispatch which states that Straw was a candidate last year when he was not that the Senate of New Hampshire consists of 62 members when it has but twelve, with [illegible] absurdities, it is nothing to us But we don t follow that plan

Political Side Shows

Political parties exist for general purposes The general ideas on which they are based are few and simple. This is a necessary law of their existence It is only on very general propositions that large numbers of people will agree At bottom all great parties have a few ideas, capable of clear definition, large and general in their application, and easily understood Now and then some people start off on special issues, attempt to exalt and magnify their importance, and to persuade others that these special issues are really the only ones to be considered, Such attempts are simply endeavors to exalt the less above the greater, and to make a part greater than the whole

There are those who devote themselves to specialties and insist that these specialties, whatever they may be, shall be adopted as the creed of their party. When they find it impossible to bring about this result they often feel like trying to set up a new party independent of all others, to carry out their designs This is a favorite device of visionary and enthusiasts, who go into raptures over every new idea that happens to strike them, no matter how old and familar that idea may be to others All existing parties are to be pulled down because they are ungenerous and unprogressive, and the new party, founded on fresh, new ideas, is to supplant them — It never occurs to such people that their new ideas are special and ephemeral, that they cannot last, and hence can form no basis for a permanent party organization

By one enthusiast we are told that if the Republican party do not at once make this idea the basis of its political creed it is doomed, by another, that if it do not immediately espouse that notion it will perish Still another brings forward his little hobby and enters it for the race, each one believing that he has the only thing that is worthy to engage public attention And if one party or the other doesn't at once take up these ideas the proprietors of each of them are ready for a "third party" And they rake into their net a lot of disappointed politicians, old stagers in the ways of political corruption, whose "services" in their party have failed to obtain such recognition as they think they are entitled to and away they all go for a new party, where they trust merit will be better appreciated

Such things are seen very often They are not new to any observer of politics The spectacle has often been presented of old politicians who, for a period beyond recollection, had been soused over head and ears in the deepest and dirtiest pits of corruption, but who had finally lost their hold upon their party, coming out and proclaiming that party is all wrong and must be totally done away, with all its works Corruption is to be cast down as Ate was from heaven Power is henceforth to be the residence of public spirit, and no one is supposed to be under any sinister influence except those who belong to the dominant party A scheme of perfection is laid down which is to be realized far beyond the visionary republic of Plato Indeed there is wherewithal to charm everybody except those penetrating people who are not much pleased with professions of supernatural virtue who know of what stuff such professions are made for what purposes they are designed and in what they are sure constantly to end

Little tricks like these are now playing, and have been for some months playing, in Oregon They will probably last till after the June election They are the side shows of a political campaign, gotten up to enable their proprietors to turn an honest penny or participated in by enthusiasts whose inexperience or defective mental constitution leads them to believe that their show is a world's wonder

Eastern papers are commenting on the fact that according to the census the annual death rate in Oregon is only 1 to every 209 inhabitants In the New England States it is 1 in 68 in the Southern States 1 in 70 while in England it is 1 in 46

"Recalcitrant" Lying.

An unusual amount of able bodied lying may be looked for during the next few weeks from those who are trying to work up the sore-head Convention at Cincinnati For instance in Saturday s dispatches it was stated that the New York Tribune had it from undoubted authority that Senator Sumner had consented to go to the Cincinnati Convention and preside over its deliberations To day s dispatches contain a denial of this on the authority of Sumner himself Saturday s dispatches stated also that Senator Tipton of Nebraska is in Chicago trying to organize the sore head movement and that in an interview with a reporter he named Garfield of Ohio and Dawes of Massachusetts as leading Republican members of Congress who were known to be in sympathy with it. This Tipton is a contemptible fellow a broken down preacher turned politician who fell out with the Administration because he couldn t get the appointments he wanted in his own State Messrs Dawes and Garfield are both in favor of the re nomination of Grant the former is a leading member of the great Grant Club of Boston and the latter recently declared himself for Grant in the most unequivocal terms Tipton generally known as ' Little Tippy is a fraud of the first magnitude, and a party that employs him as its travelling agent and organizer is in a bad way He has the respect of nobody, in or out of Congress

Evidence of Change

Resolved, That the fifteenth amendment (so called) to the Constitution of the United States is in no sense an amendment to said instrument but it is a radical change thereof striking at the principle of State rights, which lies at the base of the compact formed by the various States in the convention of 1788 and its forced and fraudulent adoption at the point of the bayonet, will be the deadliest blow ever struck at the sovereignty of the States and the liberties of the people

Now read the following from their platform of this year

Resolved, That the Democrats of Connecticut regard emancipation, equality of rights, and enfranchisement, as established facts, now embodied in the Constitution and deserving the support of good citizens of all parties

Is it any wonder that these rapid movements almost take away the breath of those Democrats who have been taught to boast that the principles of their party are founded on eternal truth and are fixed and unchangeable? Two years ago the adoption of the fifteenth amendment was opposed on the ground that it would be "the deadliest blow ever struck at the liberties of the people ' It is now accepted as an "established fact, deserving the support of all good citizens. The Connecticut election will take place two weeks hence Let us see how it will result

Appointment Investigations

A few days ago Senator Conkling of New York offered a resolution designed to expose the hypocrisy of certain Senators who claim to be "civil service reformers ' par excellence and who denounce as 'corruptionists' all who oppose their factious course, The resolution was as follows

Resolved, That the President be requested to inform the Senate of the number of recommendations for appointment to, or removal from office, so far as can be ascertained, made to the present administration by persons now Senators from the State of New York Missouri, Illinois and Nebraska respectively, giving such particulars as may be given in regard to such recommendations in regard to whose appointment or removal was proposed, together with a statement of the number of cases in which action was taken in accordance with such recommendations, and respectively of the number of such persons so appointed who have been removed, also whether any Senators have solicited appointments or removals in any other sense other than by transmitting papers stating the character, qualifications of applicants, or of those who vouched for appointments, and if so, what Senators

This touched Mr. Trumbull to the quick Mr Morton had stated that he had seen a tabulated list of one hundred and three persons whom Mr Trumbull had recommended for office to the present Administration The latter indignantly wanted to know who it was that went "prowling about the Departments for information of this sort? Mr Morton replied with tremendous effect, exposing Mr Trumbull's trafficing in offices

The statement I spoke of was not made at my request I do not know at whose request it was made out, but I had seen it I should not have referred to it, however, but for the insinuations the Senator (Trumbull) had made in regard to myself and others hanging on the skirts of power for mercenary purposes. I have a right to denounce hypocrisy wherever I find it If any man comes here and casts insinuations upon me that I am seeking for patronage, while he himself has gone as far as any one in recommending to office—has recommended in writing and verbally—has even gone to the Executive and demanded personally the appointment of relatives and friends—has been persistent has been importunate—if any such man comes on this floor and casts imputations on me, I have the right, without being criticized for it, to call attention to what he has done himself In regard to prowling around the Departments, I have been in only one Department during this session of Congress I do not go to the Departments once a year, where I suppose, the Senator (Trumbull) goes twenty times and as far as sneaks are concerned who is a sneak? Is it the man who comes here and casts imputations on Senators, impugns their motives, talks about their hanging on to the skirts of power, and attempts to make party capital by charges of that kind when he has been one of the most importunate seekers for office, and has urged the appointment of his friends, personally and in writing, time and again? Now I said that I had seen a statement showing that the Senator had made one hundred and three recommendations in writing to this Administration I believe that statement to be true and that that it will be verified under the resolution offered by the Senator from New York

Eastern papers think that there is a growing probability that the controversy with Great Britain for incidental damages will be settled in an amicable manner There are solid reasons why England should settle To show to what an extent the mere apprehension of difficulty with this country affected the English money market it is sufficient to point out that since the beginning of last month the decline in eight of the leading English railway stocks has averaged nearly six and one half per cent The Economist an excellent authority upon the subject, estimates the losses resulting from the depression of home and foreign securities at several times the amount required to cover the direct Alabama claims and this view is also concurred in by the Daily News which further points out that England will always be liable to convulsions of a similar kind until the pending questions are definitely settled

The East Portland Era makes the assertion that Oregon suffered greatly in the matter of the Salt Lake railroad grant by the ' masterly inactivity of Geo H Williams who could have secured the desired aid, but neglected to do so ' He did not neglect it He got the bill through the Senate, but it did not pass the House Williams made special effort for the bill, and its failure was no fault of his

The patent granting 160 acres of the Lafayette townsite in Yamhill county has been received but the Commissioners decided not to make out deeds at present as the suit to set aside the title of the county will probably be heard at the approaching term of Court and after that the matter will be set at rest one way or the other

From the Statesman The question as to who is the actual, practical Governor of our State enters forcibly into events occasionally For instance, when indictments are being urged against the present State officers the question as to which Governor to indict is difficult to answer Gov Grover is ex officio, and Gov Miller is de facto The 'Original Jacobs" was as uncertain a commodity as the Oregon Governorship

From the West Side (Yamhill) Contrary to all expectation, the winter has done no damage to growing wheat of any consequence Some were killed by the alternate thawing and freezing in January, and made young wheat look pretty black for a day or two, but it all recovered with the exception of what little was in wet streaks of land—such as undrained swales Fall wheat now looks as well as we remember to have ever seen it at this time of the year

The Mountaineer thus criticises the report of the Investigating Commission The whole thing has the appearance of having been gotten up as a political document and not to assist in bringing about any reform in the administration of our State affairs As a campaign document we think it a failure, and that it will disgust any sensible man, let him be a Republican or Democrat who will take the time and trouble to read it through

Schwabacher Bros & Co, of Seattle have made arrangements for erecting a brick building for their business which will cost them when completed (lot included) $38,000 It will be the largest and finest store in the Territory

A brass howitzer, twelve pounder, consigned to the Vancouver arsenal, was accidentally deposited in the river from the Hayward the other morning at the Government wharf at that place One hundred dollars is offered for its recovery

The Olympia papers say that the recent movement of the Good Templars in Olympia to prevent the total issuance of licenses to keep a saloon has resulted in augmenting the number of saloons in that place, who pay nothing whatever.

Dispatches a few days ago, stated that J B Lewen had been appointed Associate Justice of Washington Territory The Vancouver Register thinks that the appointee is Judge J R Lewis, late of Idaho, who lost his place there by a forged letter of resignation

From the Vancouver Register Wm R Turnbull started on Thursday for his home in Yakima county with a large band of young cattle, which he purchased in this county The average price he paid for two year olds was eighteen dollars per head, and twelve dollars for yearlings

We learn from the Vancouver Register that the Land Office at that place has received instructions from Washington that hereafter in all cases of commutations of homestead entries, Agricultural College scrip may be taken in payment Heretofore such scrip was only available in entries under the pre emption law

Surveyor General Ferry of Washington Territory, has estimated the amount required for an extension of the public surveys in the Territory during the year 1872 to be $83 988 which is a much larger amount than ever heretofore appropriated in any other year The Vancouver Register learns that there is every prospect of securing a larger appropriation than formerly

The Vancouver Register thinks that the N P R R must be built on the north side of the Columbia river, and send a branch over to Portland The same paper says that John Hexter and others owning land having some three miles water front on the Columbia, about five miles above Vancouver, contemplate offering to the N P R R their whole extent of water front extending over four hundred yards back from the river in consideration of the establishment and location of a junction at that point

A mysterious murder has come to light at Maple Bay Some days ago Mr John French a farmer who is working a land-claim about one mile from Maple Bay left his farm and came to Victoria in the Sir James Douglas, leaving his place in charge of an old man named James Simpson Simpson was seen down to Sunday On Monday he did not make his appearance and one of the neighbors having occasion to go to the cabin pushed open the door and found the old man lying dead A bullet hole in his breast and other circumstances showed that he had been foully dealt with Nothing had been stolen An inquest was held by Mr Morley Justice of the Peace and a verdict of murdered by some person or persons unknown was rendered

There are said to be indications at Washington that the fishery clause of the Washington Treaty will fail to go into operation because of the failure of the legislation by Congress needed to give effect to it The Boston Traveller says that the uncertainty in reference to its fate has been a cause of much anxiety to the fishermen of New England but it states that it has assurances that they can now make their arrangements for the season with no danger that the free exportation of fish from the Provinces will affect their profits.

The Mississippi river is 2 616 miles in length and is 1 630 feet above the level of the Gulf at its utmost source At St Paul it is 670 feet above the Gulf at the head of Rock Island Rapids 505 feet, at Davenport 477 feet at St Louis, 408 feet at Cairo 322 feet at Memphis 221 feet at Natchez 66 feet, at New Orleans 15 feet and at the head of the Passes 2 feet 9 inches

BRITISH COLUMBIA

The last steamer to San Francisco took treasure amounting to $93 422 54

In the estimates for expenses of British Columbia for the ensuing fiscal year is the sum of ten thousand dollars to promote immigration

The wrecking party have returned from the Zephyr They could not get near enough to save any property Another attempt will be made late in the spring

The Canadian Government will proceed to the immediate erection of a light house on Entrance Island, at the entrance of Nanaimo The spot was selected by the Lieutenant Governor and the Surveyor General a few days ago

Business at Nanaimo is very lively The new coal works are rapidly progressing The deep pit is within forty feet of the Chambers ver coal and the new Douglas slope on Newcastle Island has already produced over 000 tons of coal of the very best quality

A most singular hybrid the offspring of a cat and raccoon is on exhibition at Victoria The face ears tail and fore legs resemble a cat s and the body and flanks are those of a coon Its habits are those of a domesticated feline While it will allow anybody to stroke it and seems pleased when attention is shown it an attempt to lift it draws forth a vigorous protest from feet and teeth

It seems that the telegraph is about to be withdrawn from Victoria The Colonist says "We understand that the Canadian Government declines to continue the subsidy of $5 000 to the Western Union Telegraph Company, and that Mr Lamb after offering to accept $4,000 on behalf of the company, has been ordered to close the line north of Seattle In the Terms of union Canada agreed to maintain existing telegraph lines Her refusal to continue the subsidy would be a violation of the solemn compact There must be some mistake or misunderstanding as we are unwilling to believe that the Canadian Government would willfully violate the agreement

It takes $500 a year to obtain license to retail spirits at Kalama and it must be paid in advance for the entire year

We hear that there is a lively time at Salem All the indictments against May have been been dismissed, but there is a strong belief that the grand jury now in session will indict leading members of the Salem Ring for swindling and for sundry violations of law Many of their transactions it is said, will not bear investigation Salem is greatly excited over the situation

The State of Ohio is rapidly retrograding The Legislature has been forced to pass a bill that putative fathers of illegitimate children confined in jail for not complying with the sentence of the court shall not be allowed the use of the act for the benefit of insolvent debtors. The law of course is just, but to think of the number of such cases which must exist in order to justify such special legislation

The Office of THE DAILY AND WEEKLY OREGONIAN is removed to the S E corner of Stark and Front streets

Still Another Remarkable Cure

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 10, 1871.

DR A H LORYEA & Co —For two years I was afflicted with Rheumatism and tried all the known remedies but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief the disease always returning Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy and the result was a Speedy and Permanent Cure, the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The UNK is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it

Very truly yours

THE THIRD LECTURE OF THE COURSE WILL be delivered by REV THOS CONDON on Tuesday Evening, March 19th, 1872, at 7½ o clock

SUBJECT— The relations of our Christian Theology to Natural Science "

Exactly how MR CONDON will treat this subject we are not informed Two volumes have been open before him—from one as a Christian minister he has preached the Gospel, from the other he has exhibited some of the wonders of Creation He delights to read both and neither in the pulpit or in the lecture room does he array the teachings of one against the other The God of Nature is the God of the Bible He who creates by His power, redeems by His grace. There is no conflict between Natural Science and Christian Doctrine, but rather an intimate relation binding them together at the feet of the Master To the thoughtful mind the theme is deeply interesting It would be an unusual occurrence if Mr Condon should not be greeted with a large audience

THE COUNTY HOSPITAL —The Herald for Sunday reading furnished a local item on the County Hospital, which unquestionably does injustice to the Superintendent of that institution and the County Commissioners while it reflects no credit upon the writer We cannot think he reporter wrote it first because the writer says he has given a wide berth to the county officials in the of procuring information and second because he has taken the testimony unqualified of a man recently discharged No man knows better than the local reporter the utter unreliability of that class of people as witnesses who get into our county jails and county hospitals In nine cases out of ten they are sots and bummers who have reduced themselves by vicious to the necessity of taking poor house alms as the only escape from starvation There are very few indeed of the inmates of the hospital who are unfortunates from causes beyond their own control Men who have procured their own moral and physical debasement to the poor house point, are not usually the safest witnesses to rely upon, as every day's observance in the Police Court may convince any one When therefore the writer in the Herald tells us that he has carefully avoided the obtainment of testimony from the county officials, in regard to the rumors alleged to be afloat, and gives to the public the story of "a man recently discharged even the most thoughtless reader will doubt not only the story itself but the candor and fairness of the writer There is every reason to believe that the statements of the man recently discharged are wholly fabrications No visitor to the hospital of intelligence and fairness has lately spoken of the but in terms of commendation Their testimony must certainly stand good against that of the habitual bummer and proverbial

A SUGGESTION —A city correspondent inquires "Wouldn't it be a good idea for the Fire Department to be divided into two districts, say by Alder street, to be called North and South Districts? Then, for instance, when an alarm is struck from No. 1's house only the Protection, Hook and Ladder to turn out And should other companies be required, a second alarm should be struck and so with alarms from the North District This would do away with the necessity for all companies to turn out on false and unimportant alarms"

IN MEMORIAM

At a regular meeting of Baker Post No 1, G A R., held in this city last Saturday evening the following resolutions were adopted by an unanimous vote

HEADQUARTERS BAKER POST NO 1 G A R
PORTLAND March 16 1872

WHEREAS Information has been received that our late comrade Major A G Foos has been removed by an all wise Providence from this to a better world therefore be it

Resolved That in the death of our comrade this Post has lost a true and valued member—one who in the various relations of comrade and soldier has endeared himself in the memory of all as a faithful and tried friend of his country in the hour of need as the scars and wounds received in her service ending in a painful death, bear testimony

Resolved, That while we deeply mourn the loss of our comrade we feel that our loss is his gain,' and to his bereaved family and friends we extend our tenderest sympathy

Resolved That as a token of respect to our late comrade the officers s at ne gavels and arms of the Post be draped in mourning for thirty days

Resolved That these resolutions be entered upon the journal of the Post and a copy sent to the family of our deceased comrade, and to the daily papers of the city for publication

PORTLAND, DALLES & SALT LAKE RAILROAD

A HOPEFUL LETTER FROM COL W W CHAPMAN—THE PROPOSITION NOW PENDING IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON D C January 18 1872

Philip Wasserman Mayor of the City of Portland and Vice President of the Portland Dalles & Salt Lake Railroad Company I have not written you before because things here relating to the interest of the railroad so vital to Portland and the interests of Oregon generally had assumed no very definite shape beyond the introduction by Senator Corbett of the bill containing some new features favorable to actual settlers which seem so far as I can learn to meet with general approval

It is a little too early under the circumstances to learn definitely the sense of the committees of the Senate and House both of whom have the same bill before them But I have reason to think that both committees will report favorably in a few days and should they do so I should consider the prospect of Oregon's great enterprise as very flattering

The grand features of the bill are that it takes no lands from the actual settlers but authorizes such persons alone to purchase them, while it makes them accessible by providing a railroad by which they may be reached The Government is to sell and patent the lands to the settler whereupon they are released from the effects of the first mortgage bonds the proceeds of such sales from time to time are to be invested in United States bonds for the benefit of the company and their mortgages and only to be delivered over in cancelling their bonds as the road in sections shall be completed Their mortgage bonds before being issued, are to have an appropriate indorsement made by or under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, and clearly designating the nature and extent of the securities By these provisions the Government is made sure against any fraud or imposition because nothing is to be delivered only as the road shall be completed in sections and the company will be saved an immense expense and responsibility which otherwise would be incurred in the organization and operating a land department It will cost the Government nothing additional, because it has and must keep its machinery in operation, and the settler always pays the expense incurred in making his entry

Under this system the company will be as much interested in reclaiming lands where necessary and bringing them into notice and inducing their sale, as under any other system. On the other hand the purchaser of such mortgage bonds will have the assurance, given by the law itself that the lands, funds and bonds cannot be frittered away but in good faith as the road shall be constructed the mortgage bonds will be cancelled with whatever funds or bonds may come into the hands of the Government, and so in like manner until the last acre shall be sold The measure, so far as I can learn, is admitted to be a just one The only obstacle is the cry against making any more grants to railroads But it is the alleged abuse of the system and the impositions upon Congress in some instances that have given rise to this objection This bill however, shuts the door utterly against any possibility of these wrongs, as they are alleged, whether they be true or not

Already I have had several offers for negotiating our bonds upon receiving a grant but of course, I can make no arrangements until the fate of the measure shall be determined

Our Senators and Representatives, and the Delegate from Idaho, are working with a will for the measure and I hope soon to be able to give you more flattering news Attorney General Williams is also our friend, and will give us all the aid in his power

I have met a great many Oregonians whose countenances beam with hope for Oregon's great measure

Strange as it may seem I have received no signatures from Portland to our memorial since I left I expected thousands, and I saw by the papers that East Portland alone had furnished some hundreds, but they have not come to hand. The most convenient counties should be canvassed for signatures to the memorial and a continuous stream kept pouring in until the battle is won. Your newspapers should be filled with public sentiment The Press is a power in the land may its fires ever get low Say what you may members of Congress defer to the voice of the people, and if such efforts do nothing more, they will prove that you "still live."

Yours truly, W W CHAPMAN

A REMARKABLE CURE OF PALSY

WM BURDEN A STOCK RAISER OF WILLOW CREEK WASCO COUNTY OREGON LOST THE USE OF HIS LEFT ARM BY PALSY WAS CURED IN TEN MINUTES BY DR. ABORN COR NER THIRD AND MORRISON STREETS PORTLAND

To the Afflicted:—I wish to state that I lost the use of my left arm from my shoulder to the end of my fingers by a stroke of palsy I could not raise my hand or arm from my side and was fearful that there was no cure for me My friends at the Dalles advised me to visit Portland and place myself under the care of Dr Aborn I arrived in Portland last evening by the Dalles boat and immediately called at Dr Aborn's office and made my case known The Doctor commenced treatment at once and in ten minutes the to my great surprise and joy he performed a complete cure so that I now have the use of my arm and fingers and can raise my arm up over my head with as much ease as I can raise my right arm This certainly is a very remarkable cure, and in my estimation speaks volumes to the skill of Dr Aborn. I am stopping at the American Exchange Hotel and will leave on the boat to-morrow for home I am a stock raiser and reside at Willow creek, Wasco county Oregon eighty miles south of the Dalles

The Grand Combination

[From the Boston Advertiser]

Mrs Woodhull still insists that there is a proposition under consideration by the Representatives of the various reformatory elements of the country looking to a grand, consolidated world redeeming convention in New York in May next during anniversary week, to take the affairs of the nation in hand

The recent actions and avowals of the leaders of the Republican party ' she protests, make it impossible for any citizen of liberal tendencies to any longer affiliate with it The battle cry of the new party like that of its pioneer will doubtless be progress free thought, untrammelled lives The impatience of the several branches of the proposed combinations to throw out their independent colors as an embarrassment which this voice crying in the wilderness hopes to overcome in good time Two of these conventions were held at Columbus last week the third comes at Cincinnati in May The nomination of Judge Davis by the labor reformers, and his prompt acceptance by telegraph, threatens equal embarrassment to Mrs Woodhull and the Cincinnati Convention. Judge Davis is a man of genuine ability, conservative in his tendencies, and of irreproachable character He is also a man of wealth, not at all familiar with political or executive duties, but a man of learning and judgment While on the bench of the Supreme Court, he has given opinions in cases having political bearing notably in the Milligan case, releasing him and his free companions from punishment they richly merited, which have commended him to Democratic regard. This is not a Democratic nomination, but it is what whist-players might call a lead up to that hand, for it was evidently the best guess the Columbus Convention could make respecting the future action of this uncertain organization Judge Davis makes his brief despatch luminous by an extra judicial opinion on the duties of American citizens under the Constitution, wh [illegible] although in the nature of the case not binding, may be accepted as candidate law The chief magistracy of the republic, he says, "should neither be sought or declined by American citizens This is too broad and liable to exceptions The American people have a well settled opinion that the Presidency should certainly not be sought by judges of the Supreme Court, and they would neither consider their rights violated nor that bench dishonored if all its members kept th[illegible]—lves above the suspicion of seeking it. The emergency when an American citizen might decline a nomination without losing public confidence in his patriotism can be conceived of, though examples of it are extremely rare Governor Joel Parker nominated on the same ticket for the Vice Presidency, is a life long Democrat not known to be particularly interested in labor reform and is now serving his second term as Governor of New Jersey The first response to these nominations we have yet seen comes from the Scranton miners, representing in part associations numbering eight hundred thousand men. ' Of this number writes a correspondent of the New York Evening Post ' fully three-fourths have never read the history of David Davis They ask one another who is he? No one knows If Grant is nominated, the Welsh miners will to a man cast their votes for him, his deeds and actions are familiar to all of them, but they do not know David Davis, and will set him adrift '

The national prohibitionists nominated at the same time and place James Black of Pennsylvania and John Russell of Michigan The only reason known for the selection of the candidate for the first place is that it was necessary to conciliate the Keystone State Chief Justice Chase Justice Davis, General Butler Horace Greeley, Gerrit Smith and General Cox were all named as candidates for the position, but the special committee to whom the [illegible] was referred, reported the name of Mr. Black of Pennsylvania, and he was accepted without opposition The prohibitionists have put a good many things besides prohibition of the liquor traffic into their platform, from which we infer that even they are conscious that it is too narrow a[n] is[sue] to build a national party upon The only mischief these skirmishing parties have it in th[eir] power to do is in the States where the two great parties are nearly equal and where a slight diversion may cripple or defeat the [illegible] They are all a part of the opposi[tion] [illegible] united under a single leader, or skirmishing on their own account, they will be found in practical cooperation at the polls

The French War Indemnity

[From the N Y Herald]

It is said that Prince Bismarck has informed the French Government that Germany is ready to receive a large amount of the war indemnity at a discount of the amount of interest [illegible], if paid within a given time The German Government seems to be as desirous for some reason to have the indemnity paid as France is to get rid of this incubus The German Premier sees probably the extraordinary efforts the French Government and people are making to raise the money and deems it politic to make a show of generosity Heavy as this indemnity burden presses upon France, the patriotic French people at home and abroad are disposed to make an effort to get rid of it They are ready to part with [their] jewelry and other surplus luxuries and the industrious masses are willing to subscribe from their earnings to this object Whatever faults the French have their patriotism never fails Such people can overcome the greatest di[fficulties], such a nation though suffering from the greatest distress cannot be crushed If France could establish a good Government particularly if she could establish a republic on the model of the United States she would rise in the course of ten years from her humiliation, and become a mighty power again The French have more recuperative energy and resources than any other people in Europe

Don t Like It

The "passive policy scheme by which the Democracy are proposing to vote for Chase or Davis or Gratz Brown or some other malcontent Republican does not go down with those in the South who were mixed up in the late "unpleasantness The Mobile Register thus replies to the St Louis Republican's scheme

Passivism, like blood to the head has settled on the brain of our cotemporary and made it a little wild And so instead of making converts to a doctrine that is wise and conservative within certain bounds it [illegible] minds open to conviction by the extremeness and violence of its demands Reading after the Republican the impression is constantly repeated on our mind that that journal speaks and advises from the stand point of a Liberal Republican advocate and not from that of a Democratic advocate And when in the earnest pursuit of its policy it calls upon the Democratic party to take unreasonable premature and dangerous positions on the merest assumption of what may happen in the future, but for the happening of which we have no sort of guaranty true Democrats naturally [illegible] because they feel that they are [illegible] for a [illegible] the [illegible] or in the [illegible] phrase [illegible] pla[illegible] for a sh[illegible] lling

The Nomination of Judge Davis

A W s [illegible] journal [illegible] the St Louis Dem[ocrat] is n t very well sat[isfie]d with the nomination of Judge Davis by the Cincinnati Labor Convention It says

Of all men known to American public life Judge Davis has the largest private fortune [illegible] the smallest [illegible] If [illegible] know where his millions ca[me] [illegible] poor farmer of Illinois wl[illegible] the pan [illegible] found [illegible] and [illegible] ascertain [illegible] the necessities of th[illegible] of that time were the opportunities of Judge David Da[vis] and how th[e] title deeds of his large estates were signed in suffering and sold in sorrow He was one of th[ose] the knowledge of whom would have enable Shakespeare to give us an Anglo Saxon Shylock and [illegible] the tribe of [illegible] dramatic immortality In all [illegible] he did [illegible] did no wrong we have never [illegible] his personal honor impeached [illegible] his private character brought into question He [illegible] hung [illegible] three golden balls when times were hard and money scarce and when tired of pawnbroking he took down his sign and retired from business to contemplate those hanging scenes of this w[or]ld [illegible] had made him rich and others poor

They have so many dogs at Little Rock Ark, that it is proposed to establish extensive tanneries to utilize the bark

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SATURDAY EVENING, March 16 18[72]

Gold in New York [illegible]

Portland Legal Tender quotations [illegible] 91½c sell [illegible]

The call for exchange was lighter than for the preceding steamer [illegible] the aggregate [illegible] large sum was [illegible] Exchange ruled this steamer at ¼ per cent on San Francisco and from 1 to 1¼ on New York

The exports to Victoria by steamer Ca[lifornia] amounted to $ 984 10 of which $4[illegible] was in bond

A San Francisco telegram of the 16th says Wheat in Liverpool declined [illegible] 11s 3d a fall of 3d since last quotations

The London Mining Journal publishes a list of mines owned by English capitalists in the United States seven of which are in California, eight in Nevada four in Utah and six in Colorado A number of others are mentioned but not given in the list wh[ich] says the same authority it is well known negotiations are going on for the purchase of several others including the North Bloomfield for about $1,000 000, and Redington Quicksilver mine at $1 100 000 There are mines in Oregon—gold and galena —which when fully developed will compare favorably with the richest on the coast The gold mines are not confined to Eastern or Southern Oregon but in the Cascade range within a comparatively short distance of this city we are informed several rich gold bearing [illegible] leads have been discovered Of the galena mines from samples shown and source of information [illegible] confident they will prove rich and [illegible] no doubt [illegible] remunerative if properly developed English capital is every year drawn more and more to this coast for investment in mines of undoubted reputation [illegible] could by the expenditure of a large sum of money be made to pay Why when this is well understood to be the case do not our leading citizens aid in developing one or more of the rich galena ledges which would undoubtedly be the means of attracting to us considerable foreign capital that is now lying idle

The steamship Ajax received a large quantity of Flour and Wheat for San Francisco

The steamship Idaho is due Tuesday She is reported as having on a very large and heavy cargo of assorted merchandise

The bark Almatia will be laid on for San Francisco immediately following the discharge of her cargo We are unable to learn whether the bark Atral will be laid on or not

From Messrs Knapp Burrell & Co we learn that at last mail advices from San Francisco the brig Brewst[e]r was on the berth loading for Portland She would be followed by the Adelia which would in turn be followed by another vessel

We were not mistaken as to the enterprise of our leading merchants when we assured a large shipping firm that if they were shown the advantage to be gained in any undertaking they would be equal to the occasion in obtaining the means which by it could be brought about Acting upon this one of the largest shipping and importing houses in San Francisco have entered it to an arrangement with one of our leading firms Messrs Haw[le]y Dodd & Co by which they will lay on in Liverpool for this port a vessel to be followed in sixty days by another vessel and so on one every sixty days In consideration of Messrs H D & Co giving them 300 tons of freight every sixty days From a telegram received by Messrs H D & Co yesterday we learn that a vessel has already been laid on at Liverpool for this port We can but hail this as a harbinger of better days for us commercially Messrs Janion & Rhodes will as usual despatch a vessel at stated times from Liverpool for Portland as this new line will not interfere in the least, so far as we can learn with their arrangements—Indeed it cannot but result in great advantage to them as it will draw trade to us heretofore passing through Portland to San Francisco under the mistaken idea that they can do better in that market than in this

Produce Market

WHEAT—By the outgoing steamship—the Ajax—one of our largest shippers sends forward to the San Francisco market considerable Whether it goes seeking a market or has been placed we are not advised One of the interior speculators said he would send forward by following steamship 180 tons—all he had—to be marketed in San Francisco He expects to pocket a handsome loss. Quotations here are nominal at $1 80 ₩ cental sacked for shipment to San Francisco notwithstanding the shippers are out of the market

FLOUR—The local demand light to-day The steamship California took out for Victoria and Sound [illegible] about 1 450 bbls The Ajax received a large quantity principally from a mill saying they were not going to ship any more at present Prices remain unchanged out side of a firmer tone in the market.

POTATOES—Market ruling very firm with prices hardening The inquiry is confined principally to the best qualities We quote California in jobbing lots at 1[illegible]@1¼c ₩ lb Oregon and Sound 1¼@1½c

OATS—Market rules steady at former quotations although holders are exhibiting more firmness in view of the increased inquiry We note sales of lots of 400 sacks for Sound ports and the Cowlitz river

Aunt Tabitha

[illegible] 1872

Whatever I do and whatever I say,
Aunt Tabitha tells me that isn't the way;
When she was a girl (forty summers ago)
Aunt Tabitha tells me they never did so

Dear aunt! If I would only take her advice!
But I like my own way and I find it so nice!
And besides I forget half the things I am told
But they all will come back to me—when I am old

If a youth passes by, it may happen, no doubt,
He may chance to look in as I chance to look out;
She would never endure an impertinent stare—
It is horrid she says, and I mustn't sit there

A walk in the moonlight has pleasures I own,
But it isn't quite safe to be walking alone;
So I take a lad's arm—just for safety you know—
But Aunt Tabitha tells me they didn't do so

How wicked we are, and how good they were then!
They kept at arm's length those detestable men;
What an era of virtue she lived in!—But stay—
Were the men all such rogues in Aunt Tabitha's day?

If the men were so wicked I'll ask my papa
How he dared to propose to my darling mamma;
Was he like the rest of them? Goodness! who knows
And what shall I say if a wretch should propose

I am thinking if Aunt knew so little of sin
What a wonder Aunt Tabitha's aunt must have been!
And her grand aunt—it scares me—how shockingly sad
That we girls of to-day are so frightfully bad

A martyr will save us, and nothing else can
Let me perish—to rescue some wretched young man
Though when to the altar a victim I go
Aunt Tabitha'll tell me she never did so

The Grand Combination

[From the Boston Advertiser]

Mrs Woodhull still insists that there is a proposition under consideration by the Representatives of the various reformatory elements of the country looking to a grand, consolidated, world redeeming convention in New York in May next during anniversary week, to take the affairs of the nation in hand "The recent actions and avowals of the leaders of the Republican party," she protests, make "it impossible for any citizen of liberal tendencies to any longer affiliate with it The battle cry of the new party like that of its pioneer will doubtless be progress free thought, untrammelled lives The impatience of the several branches of the proposed combinations to throw out their independent colors as an embarrassment which this voice crying in the wilderness hopes to overcome in good time Two of these conventions were held at Columbus last week the third comes at Cincinnati in May The nomination of Judge Davis by the labor reformers, and his prompt acceptance by telegraph, threatens equal embarrassment to Mrs Woodhull and the Cincinnati Convention Judge Davis is a man of genuine ability, conservative in his tendencies, and of irreproachable character He is also a man of wealth, not at all familiar with political or executive duties, but a man of learning and judgment While on the bench of the Supreme Court, he has given opinions in cases having political bearing notably in the Milligan case, releasing him and his free companions from punishment they richly merited, which have commended him to Democratic regard This is not a Democratic nomination, but it is what whist-players might call a lead up to that hand, for it was evidently the best guess the Columbus Convention could make respecting the future action of this [illegible] organization Judge Davis makes his brief despatch luminous by an extra judicial opinion on the duties of American citizens under the Constitution which, although in the nature of the case not binding, may be accepted as candidate law "The chief magistracy of the republic," he says, "should neither be sought or declined by American citizens" This is too broad and liable to exceptions The American people have a well settled opinion that the Presidency should certainly not be sought by Judges of the Supreme Court, and they would not consider their rights violated nor that bench dishonored if all its members kept themselves above the suspicion of seeking it The emergency when an American citizen might decline a nomination without losing public confidence in his patriotism can be conceived of, though examples of it are extremely rare Governor Joel Parker, nominated on the same ticket for the Vice Presidency, is a life long Democrat, not known to be particularly interested in labor reform and is now serving his second term as Governor of New Jersey The first response to these nominations we have yet seen comes from the Scranton miners, representing in part associations numbering eight hundred thousand men "Of this number," writes a correspondent of the New York Evening Post, fully [illegible] have never read the history of David Davis They ask one another who is he? No one knows If Grant is nominated, the Welsh miners will to a man cast their vote for him, his deeds and actions are familiar to all of them, but they do not know David Davis, and will set him adrift"

The national prohibitionists nominated at the same time and place James Black of Pennsylvania and John Russell of Michigan The only reason known for the selection of the candidate for the first place is that it was necessary to conciliate the Keystone State Chief Justice Chase, Justice Davis, General Butler, Horace Greeley, Gerrit Smith and General Cox were all named as candidates for the [illegible], but the special committee to which the [illegible] was referred reported the name of Mr Black of Pennsylvania, and he was accepted without opposition. The prohibitionists have put a good many things besides prohibition of the liquor traffic into their platform, from which we infer that even they are conscious that it is too narrow an issue [illegible] national party upon The only mischief these skirmishing parties have it in their power to do is in the States where the two great parties are nearly equal, and where a slight diversion may cripple or defeat the [illegible]. They are all a part of the opposition and whether united under a single leader, or skirmishing on their own account they will be found in practical cooperation at the polls.

The French War Indemnity

[From the N Y Herald]

It is said that Prince Bismarck has informed the French Government that Germany is ready to receive a large amount of the war indemnity at a discount of the amount of interest thereon, if paid within a given time The German Government seems to be as desirous for some reason to have the indemnity paid as France is to get rid of this incubus The German Premier sees probably the extraordinary efforts the French Government and people are making to raise the money and deems it politic to make a show of generosity Heavy as this indemnity burden presses upon France, the patriotic French people at home and abroad are disposed to make an effort to get rid of it They are ready to part with their jewelry and other surplus luxuries, and the industrious masses are willing to subscribe from their earnings to this object Whatever faults the French have, their patriotism never fails Such people can overcome the greatest difficulties, such a nation though suffering from the greatest distress cannot be crushed If France could establish a good Government, particularly if she could establish a republic on the model of the United States she would rise in the course of ten years from her humiliation, and become a mighty power again The French have more recuperative energy and resources than any other people in Europe

Don't Like It

The "passive policy" scheme by which the Democracy are proposing to vote for Chase or Davis or Gratz Brown, or some other malcontent Republican does not go down with those in the South who were mixed up in the late "unpleasantness" The Mobile Register thus replies to the St Louis Republican's scheme

Passivism, like blood to the head has settled on the brain of our cotemporary and made it a little wild And so instead of making converts to a doctrine that is wise and conservative within certain bounds it repels minds open to conviction by the extremeness and violence of its demands Reading after the Republican the impression is constantly repeated on our mind that that journal speaks and advises from the stand point of a Liberal Republican advocate, and not from that of a Democratic advocate And when, in the earnest pursuit of its policy it calls upon the Democratic party to take unreasonable, premature and dangerous positions, on the mere assumption of what may happen in the future but for the happening of which we have no sort of guaranty true Democrats naturally hold back because they feel that they are let upon [illegible] too dear for a [illegible] battle or in the homely phrase too [illegible] pork for a shilling

A Western journal of high standing the St Louis Democrat—is not very well satisfied with the nomination of Judge Davis by the Cincinnati Labor Convention It says

Of all men known to American public life Judge Davis has the largest private fortune representing the smallest honest effort If you would know where his millions came from ask the poor farmer of Illinois whom the panic of 1857 found in debt and distress ascertain how the necessities of the poor of that time were the opportunities of Judge David Davis and how the little deeds of his large estates were signed in suffering and sealed in sorrow He was one of the few knowledge of whom would have enabled Shakspeare to give us an Anglo Saxon Shylock and deprived the tribe of Israel of its dramatic immortality In all he did, he did or less did no wrong, we have never heard his personal honor impeached or his private character brought into question He simply hung out three golden balls when times were hard and money scarce and when tired of pawnbroking he took down his sign and retired from business to contemplate those changing scenes of this wicked world which had made him rich and others poor

They have so many logs at Little Rock, Ark, that it is proposed to establish extensive tanneries to utilize the bark

Gold in New York 110¼

Portland Legal Tender quotations 90 [illegible] buying and 91½c selling

The call for exchange was lighter than for the preceding steamer although in the aggregate a large sum was remitted Exchange ruled this steamer at ½ per cent on San Francisco and from 1 to 1¼ on New York

The exports to Victoria by steamer California amounted to $ 984 10 of which $405 21 was in bond

A San Francisco telegram of the 16th says Wheat in Liverpool declined to 11s 3d a fall of 3d since last quotations

The London Mining Journal publishes a list of mines owned by English capitalists in the United States seven of which are in California, eight in Nevada four in Utah and six in Colorado A number of others are mentioned but not given in the list which says the same authority it is well known negotiations are going on for the purchase of several others, including the North Bloomfield for about $1,000 000, and Redington Quicksilver mine at $1 100 000 There are mines in Oregon—gold and galena—which when fully developed will compare favorably with the richest on the coast The gold mines are not confined to Eastern or Southern Oregon but in the Cascade range, within a comparatively short distance of this city we are informed several rich gold bearing quartz leads have been discovered Of the galena mines from samples shown and source of information we are confident they will prove rich and would no doubt prove remunerative if property developed English capital is every year drawn more and more to this coast for investment in mines of undoubted reputation or which could by the expenditure of a large sum of money be made to pay Why when this is well understood to be the case do not our leading citizens aid in developing one or more of the rich galena ledges which would undoubtedly be the means of attracting to us considerable foreign capital that is now lying idle?

The steamship Ajax received a large quantity of Flour and Wheat for San Francisco

The steamship Idaho is due Tuesday She is reported as having on a very large and heavy cargo of assorted merchandise

The bark Almatia will be laid on for San Francisco immediately following the discharge of her cargo We are unable to learn whether the bark Ancel will be laid on or not

From Messrs Knapp Burrell & Co we learn that at last mail advices from San Francisco the brig Brewster was on the berth loading for Portland She would be followed by the Amelia which would in turn be followed by another vessel

We were not mistaken as to the enterprise of our leading merchants when we assured a large shipping firm that if they were shown the advantage to be gained in any undertaking they would be equal to the occasion in obtaining the means which by it could be brought about. Acting upon this one of the largest shipping and importing houses in San Francisco have entered into an arrangement with one of our leading firms Messrs Hawley, Dodd & Co by which they will lay on in Liverpool for this port a vessel to be followed in sixty days by another vessel and so on one every sixty days in consideration of Messrs H D & Co. giving them 500 tons of freight every sixty days From a telegram received by Messrs H D & Co yesterday we learn that a vessel has already been laid on at Liverpool for this port We can but hail this as a harbinger of better days for us commercially Messrs. Janion & Rhodes will as usual despatch a vessel at stated times from Liverpool for Portland as this new line will not interfere in the least, so far as we can learn with their arrangements—indeed it cannot but result in great advantage to them as it will draw trade to us heretofore passing through Portland to San Francisco under the mistaken idea that they can do better in that market than in this

Produce Market.

WHEAT—By the outgoing steamship—the Ajax—one of our largest shippers sends forward to the San Francisco market considerable Whether it goes seeking a market or has been placed we are not advised One of the interior speculators said he would send forward by following steamship 180 tons—all he had—to be marketed in San Francisco He expects to pocket a handsome loss Quotations here are nominal at $1 60 ₱ cental sacked for shipment to San Francisco notwithstanding the shippers are out of the market

FLOUR—The local demand light to-day The steamship California took on for Victoria and Sound ports about 1 250 bbls The Ajax received a large quantity principally from a mill saying they were not going to ship any more at present Prices remain unchanged outside of a firmer tone in the market.

POTATOES—Market ruling very firm with prices hardening The inquiry is confined principally to the best qualities We quote California in jobbing lots at 1¼@1½c ₱ lb Oregon and Sound 1¼@1½c

OATS—Market rules steady at former quotations although holders are exhibiting more firmness in view of the increased inquiry We note sales in lots of 400 sacks for Sound ports and the Cowlitz river

HAY—Demand steady but under a growing impression of large supply in the country together with free receipts prices are weak for Timothy at $24 per ton other descriptions, $12@16

EGGS—Market sluggish to-day with several lots in [illegible] sold at close Prices [illegible] at 22c per doz

General Merchandise

VINEGAR—The agents of Messrs A Moller & Co of the Concentrated Wine Vinegar hold it at 60c per gallon for No 1 40c for No 2, 30c for No 3 with the usual discount to the trade This is claimed to be a superior quality and for concentrated is low

IRON—A dispatch from Liverpool quotes the market for Pig at 111s per ton an advance of 12s per ton

HARDWARE—In sympathy with an advance in San Francisco Axes were marked up $1 per dozen and Shovels 50c per dozen Other leading staples [illegible] will probably be marked up upon arrival of the Idaho
